

To whom it may concern,

I am currently attempting to convey a message to the FCC asking that no further deregulation of proprietary rights occur. I feel that without plurality in the press, citizens will not have the opportunity to share differing ideas, thus discouraging a true democratic forum. Please regard this matter with the seriousness that free press deserves.

Thank You For Your Time,

William C Simmons, II